HISTORY OF
UNC SUPPORT GROUP-JSA

The United Nations Command Support Group-Joint Security Area was established on 5 May 1952 as the United Nations Command Support Group (Provisional) with an authorized strength of five officers and ten enlisted men. The mission of the Group was to provide necessary facilities and logistical support to the Military Armistice Commission and other personnel engaged in the implementation of the Armistice Agreement which ended the Korean conflict. During peak operations, from November 1953 to January 1954, the Group employed over 1,300 officers and EM in support of approximately 32,000 members of UNCMAC, the United Nations sponsored delegations to the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission (Switzerland and Sweden), the UNC Repatriation Group, the Custodial Forces (India), non-repatriated prisoners of war, and delegates to the Preliminary Political Conferences.

By March 1954, the mission of the Support Group had changed to its present one of commanding and controlling UNC components of the Joint Security Force, maintaining liaison with the Senior Member, UNCMAC, Cdr, USFK, and Cdr, EUSA to insure coordinated activities in the vicinity of Panmunjom, and providing full logistical support for UNCMAC and related activities. Additionally, the Group is responsible for enforcing and complying with the Armistice agreement in a number of key areas.

On 20 July 1954, the Support Group was awarded the Meritorious Unit Citation for its outstanding service in support of operations "Big Switch", "Comeback" and "Rainbow". These three operations involved the return of prisoners of war and displaced persons. The Group was officially redesignated as UNCSG-JSA on 11 June, 1979 and remains, today, "IN FRONT OF THEM ALL".

SUBJECT: Message to the Soldiers of JSA

14 August 1985

1. This year marks the 32d Anniversary of the United Nations Command Support Group - Joint Security Area and 32 years of peace since the signing of the Armistice Agreement.

2. This unique one of a kind unit continues to perform it's mission magnificently during times that are perilous in the highly sensitive Joint Security Area at Panmunjom. From its inception, it has provided full security and logistical support for the United Nations Command Military Armistice Commission; the Swiss and Swedish Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission and other related activities and agencies.

3. Living under conditions of constant tensions is difficult, but it should be rewarding to know that you are serving the United Nations Command, the United States of America, the Republic of Korea and the FREE World as a vanguard of freedom and democracy. The soldiers in JSA have established a reputation as the finest soldiers in Korea. Each year thousands of distinguished guests and visitors tour Panmunjom. Their comments attest to your professionalism and dedication to duty, honor and country.

4. The soldiers of JSA maintain a constant vigil over the most treacherous and unpredictable communist regime on the face of the earth. To serve in JSA is a privilege and distinct honor.

5. I am extremely proud of you who are directly responsible for the reputation that the Joint Security Area has earned over the years.

6. Moreover, I extend to you my personal gratitude and thanks for your continued support. Our mission, location, and our achievements have been and will continue to be, "IN FRONT OF THEM ALL."
